

Under federal law, parents of students attending Title I schools have the right to know information on the professional qualifications of the student's teacher, including:

1. Whether the teacher meets the state qualifications and licensing criteria for the grades and subjects he or she teaches.
2. Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or provisional status because of special circumstances.
3. Whether the teacher has any advanced degrees and the field of discipline of the teacher's certification or degree.
4. Whether the child receives services from a paraprofessional and the qualifications of the paraprofessional.

Contact the school principal for further information.
